The Sense of Security

Unless he possesses a sense of complete security a man can neither put forth his best efforts nor fulfil his highest destiny in life.

The sense of security is best achieved by placing his own future beyond the risk of misadventure, and by placing those who would suffer by his death beyond the risk of want.

This state of mental independence can be attained in an ideal way by taking out a Policy of Assurance. We can offer you the choice of a range of contracts which cover practically, every circumstance and contingency in life.

STUDENTS OF EUROPE NEED ASSISTANCE

Terrible Conditions Prevail in Mid-European Potty States.

CAMPAIGN STARTS.

"Three Cents a Meal" in the Student-Help-Student Drive.

When last year the question of Student Relief in Central Europe was brought up before the Students' Council it was not regarded in a very favourable light, nor was it any more approved by the students themselves, who did not turn out to a special meeting held to consider the problem. The Council did donate a small sum to the cause but scarcely in an enthusiastic manner.

Now this apathy was due to an entirely wrong viewpoint of the whole matter. The way in which the subject was brought to McGill's attention did not make sufficiently plain the fact that the funds donated were certain to go towards the relief of fellow-students and would not be liable to diversion into wrong channels, that the contributions would under no circumstances be used for the assistance of any never-do-weels or any of those looked after by the relief commissions operating in those countries. The facts have now been presented in a clear and convincing manner to the Council and they are certain that the student body will back them up in their decision to help out in the campaign to the extent of their ability.

The proposed method of raising funds is by means of a financial drive to be held among the students. This drive has been held over till the end of the examination period to enable the undergraduates to give more attention to it, and even though it is the beginning of the social season with everyone scarce recovered from the stress of Christmas expenditures it is expected that each and every one will contribute to the extent of his ability.

The facts of the matter are these. In Central Europe, particularly in infantile republics such as Estonia and Lithuania, there are thousands of students, eager for knowledge, eager to bring about their country's welfare and prosperity, yet literally starving and destitute, not knowing where the next meal is coming from. They constitute a kind of in-between class and do not come under the direct supervision of the reg-

GLEE CLUB WILL GIVE CONCERTS

Special Practices Being Held to Prepare New Work.

Now that exams are over, for better or worse, the Glee Club will settle down to some of its real work in preparation for the coming performances. Practices will be held on every Monday and Thursday evening in order that the necessary ground can be covered. The first appearance of the Club in public will take place on Sunday, the 29th, at four o'clock in the afternoon. Later on in the season the big concert will be given, somewhere about the middle of March.

The Club has at present a very favourable repertoire but the finer points in connection with the rendering of the items will take all the time at their disposal. However, the Club is well able to undertake this work of polishing off the pieces, and, judging by the amount of progress which has been made so far, the two concerts will be well worth the attendance of all who can. Many old favourites are to be found amongst the Club's numbers, and also there are many new and probably not so well known items. These latter call for careful execution and a delicate technique but the Club is well on the road towards the necessary perfection, and when the time comes for their appearance, they will undoubtedly do the songs as much justice as could be done by any similar organization which has had the short life of the present Glee Club.

Music at McGill is just commencing to come into its own. Signs are apparent everywhere that a greater amount of interest is being displayed on the part of many who were accustomed to look rather disdainfully on such performances or who would not give any time to them because they thought that anything which smacked of music was far above their status of understanding. The items, as rendered by the Glee Club will quickly show such persons that there is no need to adopt the attitudes to which they have leaning. Music is a possession to be enjoyed by all.

JUNIOR TEAM WINS FROM ST. GABRIEL

Play Was Fast, But Not Brilliant.

SEVEN TO THREE.

Scoring Rapid in Part of First Period.

On Saturday afternoon the McGill Juniors defeated the St. Gabriel team by a score of seven to three. The play was fast, but not brilliant. Several times both teams got the puck in front of their opponents' goal without scoring. Both goal tenders showed a tendency to stray too far from the goal.

The play began by getting the puck down near the McGill end, but before any damage was done Jack Emo got down the ice and scored the first point. Thirty seconds after the puck was faced off Abbot scored the second goal for McGill. At this stage of the game the scoring was in rapid succession, the first goal for the Saints being netted by Murray in the next half minute. A few minutes later Smith replaced Gammill, and shortly afterwards made a point for McGill. The Red and White got the puck down in front of their opponents' net, but after a very formidable attack the puck was taken out of the danger zone by St. Gabriel. Just before the end of the period Fred Connor scored, making the score four to one in McGill's favor.

Connor started the scoring in the second period by getting a point. The St. Gabriel team got the play right in front of McGill goal, and in spite of a determined resistance, succeeded in getting the puck into the net. Connor scored his third goal, which was closely followed by another from Gammill. Bennett, of the St. Gabriels, made the last point of the game, giving them three points to McGill's seven.

NEW REGULATIONS FOR SCHOLARSHIPS

The following letter in regard to Science Research Scholarships awarded by the Royal Commission for the Exhibition of 1851 has been received from the Registrar.

"The regulations governing the granting of the above scholarships have been changed, and henceforth three scholarships will be open to Canadian students every year instead of one for certain specific universities every second year. Under the new regulations, eight Canadian Universities are invited to recommend candidates for this scholarship, and of those so recommended the three who stand highest in the opinion of the Commission will be selected. Applications for the scholarship will be received by the Registrar up to March first next.

LACHINE SIX DEFEATED BY SECOND TEAM

Intermediate Hockey Team Wins Fourth Straight.

SCORE 6-2.

Kent Performs Well — Team Now Leads in City League.

The Intermediate hockey team continue to set a fast pace in the City League series by handing the Lachine sextette the short end of a 6 to 2 score, at Victoria Rink on Saturday. Owing to the mildness of the weather the ice did not permit of very fast skating, and the play was as a result slowed up to a marked degree, but the form displayed by the McGill puck chasers again brought a great deal of satisfaction to the coach.

The forward line was severely handicapped by the absence of "Shorty" Lynch, who has featured prominently in every contest played this season, and for a time the wings seemed unable to get working together, but after a few minutes of play their combination improved, and from then on they completely baffled the suburban forwards, and there never for a moment appeared to be a doubt as to the outcome. The Red and White attack was always well timed, and their passing improved as the game progressed, five of the six goals scored for the winners being the result of pretty combination plays.

The contest was featured by clean play throughout, not a single player being sent to the bench until the middle of the third period, when each team suffered one minor penalty. "Billy" Mill and Frederick being retired for two minutes for offences which appeared to be unintentional.

Captain Leonard Kent again starred for McGill. He directed the play very ably on the ice, and was an inspiring leader, contributing personally three of his team's counters. His checking was also of a high order. Time and again he would stop the Lachine forwards almost before they could get started down the ice. The McGill defence continued to show great strength. McGerrigle and Dempsey holding down that end of the work in handy fashion. Their consistent and at times sensational performance saved Moran a good deal of work.

PHYSICAL EDs HOLD ENJOYABLE DANCE

Many Attend First of This Type Held.

Superstition has it that events which take place on Fridays (when they fall on the thirteenth day of the month) are doomed to ill luck. Those who attended the dance, given by the McGill School of Physical Education on Jan. 13, laughed at this idea (if anyone thought about it at all) and everyone enjoyed a delightful evening.

The R.V.C. gym. looked quite attractive when decorated in red with chairs lining the walls in which were numbers of gaily coloured cushions. The music was in the hands of Messrs. Wright, Copping and Michaux, a splendid trio who contributed largely to the success of the evening.

Thirty Physical Eds., their cheery friends, genial patrons, a good floor, excellent music and four hours in which to make merry — what more could one wish? No wonder the time flew. This was the first dance ever given by the M. S. P. E., and those present devoutly hoped it would not be the last.

Miss Cartwright and Miss M. Reynolds received the guests, among whom were Miss Hurlbatt, Dr. and Mrs. Lamb, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Powder, Miss Wood, Mr. Cartwright, Miss Wain, Mr. Wain, Miss Birkett and Miss Wilson.

Profiteering by whites it is alleged has driven the Indians of the Southwest back to the use of bows and arrows in hunting game. The Navajo and Ute Indians are shooting jack rabbits and prairie dogs with this weapon because of the high cost of ammunition. The animals are easily killed at a short distance with the bow and arrow.

The old McGill-Laval rivalry will be going at full steam at the hockey game on Wednesday. The name may be changed to Montreal, but they have the Laval spirit and that means that a good contest is assured.

MONTREAL, MONDAY, JANUARY 23, 1922.

"THREE CENTS A MEAL."

It is likely that the most outstanding event of the coming week will be the campaign for funds for the relief of the destitute students of Central Europe. The Students' Council decided to give its complete approbation to this campaign, and to appoint one of the number of its retiring members as its executive head, just a day or so before the beginning of the mid-term examinations, at which time it was manifestly impracticable to initiate a drive with any hope of success.

It need not be imagined that the executive council of the Students' Council gave their sanction to this campaign without a great deal of forethought. The affair was thoroughly probed from every angle before it was possible to arrive at a unanimous decision, more especially as a certain amount of superficial opposition had been raised against the relief movement in other Universities on this continent.

No one, and more especially no self-supporting student, is anxious to throw money about on trivial or unworthy objects, but all too often the old, familiar "charity begins at home" plea is advanced by those whose knowledge of or interest in home charities is very close to zero.

The whole idea of student supporting student is something even more than broadly humanitarian in reality. Some half-starved creature with his toes sticking out through the tattered ends of his boots may be the future prime minister of one of the swarm of semi-organized nations of Central Europe. The committee in charge of the campaign have sensibly enough settled on the fifty-cent unit of contribution. One fifty cent contribution will go quite a long way when it is reduced to the "three cents a meal" basis on the other side.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Since the "Daily" suspended publication some days ago for the period of the mid-term examinations several meetings have been held to discuss the question of the site of the new gymnasium building. Representatives from the Council, together with the presidents of the various undergraduate societies met the Principal and representatives of several branches of the University, including the Department of Physical Education. At this meeting the students' representatives were given an opportunity of giving a complete exposition of their arguments in favour of locating the new building on the Macdonald property close to the Stadium. A few days later at a meeting of the Board of Governors, it was decided to postpone the final decision until a later date in order that the conflicting claims might be weighed as thoroughly as possible. Whatever the final decision may be it is evident that the University authorities have made every effort to obtain an unbiased outlook on the student-viewpoint on this important question.

There can be no doubt but that the sport-loving public at McGill were sorely disappointed over the failure of the Universite de Montreal to secure admission to the Intercollegiate Hockey Union. On Wednesday evening they will have an opportunity of seeing their French friends in action against the Red and White Senior team. Unprecedented enthusiasm is being shown by the students of the University de Montreal, and, according to our latest information, almost every seat has been sold on their side of the rink. It is evident that the disappointed candidates for intercollegiate company mean to show that they would have been fully equal to the honour. This will be the first opportunity that McGill will have of judging of the quality of the team that made such a name for itself at Boston during the Christmas holidays.

PRINCESS

Next week the Princess Theatre announces one of the most attractive vaudeville programmes to be seen in Montreal this season. Florence Walton, America's premiere dancer, recently back from European triumphs, more radiant than ever, will headline the programme. Long noted as the best dressed woman on the stage, Miss Walton will wear creations that defy satirical criticism. She has given her offering, which opens with a song and solo dance much variety, together with special and elaborate stage settings and scenic effects. Leo Lettrum and Alexander Vlad, who have also gained much popular favor, will assist Miss Walton, while other members of her company include Milan Smolen, pianist, and Maximilian Dolin, Russian violinist.

Craig Campbell, the distinguished English tenor, will offer a very attractive programme. He is one of the most popular singers who has been heard in the two-a-day. His voice is faultless in purity and perfect in method of production, his tones are produced easily and effectively, and with a dramatic touch of sympathetic plaint as the case may require, but above all he has youth, a quality far too seldom possessed by an operatic star.

Lew Brice and Co. provide a merry melange of melody, song and dance. Mr. Brice, introducing his famous eccentric dance novelties, with the assistance of Ray Henderson at the piano. Raymond Bond comes in his own delightful little playlet, "Remnants," a quaint home-spun comedy skilfully and movingly written with a reverence not often seen in vaudeville plays.

Harry and Denis DuFor are billed as "The Idealists of Dancers," they have gained a reputation in both musical comedy and vaudeville, having been the late dancing features of "So Long Letty," and "The Rainbow Girl." They are a couple of young beau brummels possessing looks, ability and very pleasing personalities. "Shadowland" is a combination of inventive and terpsichorean genius, being a fantastic spectacle in which in silhouette created by shadows, Miss LaLuce and Company execute a programme of dances and art studies, in which color shades are used freely, the effect from which is startlingly artistic. Last season "Shadowland" was a feature of the New York Hippodrome, and probably the most talked of spectacle in this mammoth playhouse.

The Wilson Aubrey Trio are excellent athletes and wrestlers, whose offering is garnished with comedy. Potter and Hartwell are entertainers whose versatility enable them to run the gamut of variety, who will be seen in their original comedy offering entitled, "Muddled Mixtures."

All out to the Arena Wednesday.

BOXERS ARE PITTED WITH NATIONALS

Brewer Comes Through in Old Time Form.

CLOSE CONTEST.

Shackell Also Shows Ability With Gloves.

The McGill boxers on Friday officially opened what will undoubtedly be the busiest season in the history of the sport at McGill, when five mittmen representing the Red and White paid a visit to the National A.A., and encountered a quintet of the French club's best boxers in the roped arena. Although the McGill men were awarded the decision in only two of the five matches, the form displayed by the Red and White boxers was very encouraging, to say the least. "Bill" Brewer and Frank Shackell gained well earned victories. Edelberg lost by a narrow margin in a bout which required an extra round to decide the winner, while Monroe Abinovitch showed a decided improvement in form, and although he was not awarded the decision, put up an excellent brand of boxing, and made it clear that he is to be a serious contender in the 158 pound class.

Brewer, in the wind-up, gained the favor of the spectators by his willingness to mix it up, but his opponent, Paulhus kept covered up throughout the fight, which precluded any open boxing. The crowd was particularly pleased with the clean manner in which "Bill" broke clinches, and were surprised when the judges ordered a fourth round, which Brewer won handily. Abinovitch and Corbell met in the semi-final, and staged an exciting battle. The going seemed about even until the closing moments of the third round, when the McGill freshman let an uppercut fly apparently from the floor, and landed the cleanest blow of the evening upon Corbell's chin. The latter fell like a log, and it looked like the end of the fray, but the husky boy rose and held on until the final gong. It appeared that this knockdown was sufficient to give the McGill man the lead, but the decision was awarded to the French veteran.

Frank Shackell gave perhaps the most satisfying performance of the evening, gaining the decision over Dutil in the 135 pound class. Frank had his opponent groggy in the first round, and if he had cared to follow up his advantage could have finished the bout in short order. The second round was even more to Shackell's advantage, as was the first half of the third. But after that the McGill man grew arm weary, while Dutil rallied. Frank at this point showed remarkable gameness. It would have been an easy matter to hold his opponent off until the gong, but Shackell refused to cover up, and stood up exchanging blows for over a minute with Dutil.

In the second match Edelberg had his man hanging on to the ropes after the middle of the first round, but his lack of condition became apparent, and he was unable to keep up the fast pace. Boudreau came back and evened matters up in the next two rounds, and the judges ordered a fourth, in which the National entry gained the victory.

The first bout was a quick victory for Blain, who disposed of little Jack Sharpe in the first round. Blain's experience was too great a handicap for Jack, and he was unable to stand the gaff.

"Ernie" Robinson was particularly impressed with the work of Brewer, Shackell and Abinovitch, and feels confident that with a little more training these wearers of the Red and White should bring many victories to McGill. Edelberg has not yet rounded into condition, but if he succeeds in reducing his surplus weight he should find no difficulty in retaining the intercollegiate championship in the 125 pound division.

On Saturday, January 28th, the boxers, accompanied by a pair of matmen, will meet the amateurs of Ottawa as the curtain raiser to the winter carnival to be staged next week at the Capital. This meet has always attracted a great deal of attention, and this year should be more prominent than ever.

On February 1st and 2nd the college championships will be staged. The winners will probably represent McGill at the intercollegiate at Toronto on the 17th and 18th of February. On the 11th of next month the A.A.A. boxers come up against the McGill team at the former's gymnasium, and several fast bouts are sure to be staged. On March 10th the boxers and wrestlers take a trip to the States. The matmen will meet Syracuse on the 10th and Cornell the following day, while the leather pushers meet the Navy boxers on the 11th. Manager Currie has announced that all arrangements have been completed for the meets with the American universities.

The Mount Royal Arena should be packed with its record crowd for the season at the McGill-Montreal Varsity game this week.

TRAMP TO BE FROM UNION TUES. 8. P.M.

Snow and Weather Conditions Good.

TICKETS 40 CENTS.

Plans are on Large Scale With Good Programme.

Plans for the first snowshoe tramp of the season have been made, which will take place from the Union tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. During the past few years this form of a social evening has been taken up very enthusiastically by the student body.

To-morrow's event will be under the patronage of Prof. and Mrs. Basil Williams, Miss Cameron, Prof. Matthews, and other members of the staff. The programme for the evening has been drawn up so as to make this tramp one of the best which has ever been held at McGill.

The students will alter in the Lounge Room of the Union at 8 p.m., where an introduction committee will see that new tramps are introduced and have their programmes filled.

The party will then start out for the tramp up the mountain which will be over a new and easy course with several hills to be slid down on the return.

On the arrival at the Union again shortly after 10 p.m., supper will be served in the Union Cafeteria. Special arrangements have been made by the management and it will be seen that this item will not be neglected.

Before breaking up for the night the tramps will assemble in the Lounge Room.

Already the sale of tickets has manifested the interest of the student body both at the R. V. C. and the University. While the splendid conditions on Mount Royal as the result of the recent snowfalls will give an opportunity to all to enjoy one of the best winter sports which Eastern Canada has to offer. Snowshoeing is unique since it takes no practising like skiing and skating but yet provides no small amount of fun to a party of students.

The price of the tickets is made to just cover the cost of the night's entertainment, and will be at forty cents a single ticket and judging by the sale at the Union and interest shown at the R. V. C. Tuesday evening will give a chance for "exam-worn students" to forget their troubles.

SONG BOOK ESSENTIAL TO STUDENT

Everyone Should Know College Songs and Yells.

ISSUED AT LOSS.

Songs Bring Pleasant Memories to Graduates.

The college songs are perhaps the most pleasing and the longest remembered of any of the memories of college days. The smokers and reunions of the college clubs from time to time are made brighter and more pleasant when the whole group of students attending join together in some of the favorite songs that have been associated with Old McGill for many years.

As far as the smokers are concerned, there have been too few of them this year at which the whole body of the students could attend. In former years they were almost monthly affairs at which the men attending the university could gather together for sing-songs which left them hoarse but happy at the end of the evening. There may be more of them in the weeks to come and if so, it is to be hoped that everyone gets out with the right spirit.

The appearance of McGill Song Book at the opening of the session was most welcome from the point of view of the men who like college songs, and there are none who do not, but there was little opportunity to use them outside of the occasional gatherings of small bodies of students in clubs and fraternities. The Students' Council in putting the book on sale at a price which meant that they would have a big deficit to make up on the publication, did so with the intention of making the book one that could be easily secured by every man attending the university.

The book, which gave everyone a chance to learn all of the college's historic songs to the proper settings should prove valuable to every man at the big college functions that are notable every spring. Not that it is expected that any man should have a song book for reference at the smokers—that is only expected of Freshmen at the opening meetings in the fall term—but to give every man a chance to know the college ballads and yells before the time for the affairs arrive.

It is said that the side of the rink reserved for the Montreal supporters is almost sold out already. It is up to McGill men to see that there is a solid mass of spectators facing their opponents.

BANQUET TO BE HELD IN UNION

Commercial Society to Have Interesting Programme.

On Thursday, Jan. 26th at 8 P.M., the Commercial Society will hold its semi-annual banquet in the Union. The tickets are on sale now and may be secured from the class representatives. This banquet bids fair to outshine all previous efforts of the kind, and a good time is assured by those in charge of the arrangements.

Mr. P. B. Wilson of Sault Ste. Marie, Vice-President and Comptroller of the Spanish River Pulp and Paper Co., will be the guest of honour. It was deeply regretted by the executive that Mr. Wilson was unable to attend a meeting of the Commercial Society during one his flying visits to Montreal in the past two years, and it is a pleasure to receive him as guest of honour at the first meeting of 1922.

Dean Laing will receive his first impressions of the Commercial Society on that evening, and will outline the future of the School, in his address to the students. The professoriate will be represented by some of its more prominent members, who will be the guests of the Society at this banquet.

CENTENNIAL FUND PAYMENTS OVERDUE

Many Students Have Not Yet Made First Payment.

Word has been received by the Students' Council from J. W. Jenkins, Controller of the Graduate Society, drawing attention to the fact that a great many students who pledged themselves to subscribe to the Centennial Fund, have not yet made their second payment, which was due on January 1. Besides this, a percentage of students have not even discharged their FIRST payment, which fell due Jan. 1, 1921.

Full details of the way in which the money subscribed to the Endowment Fund is being spent, has been published before in these columns. Student subscribers have also received letters requesting that they should make payment at the earliest possible date.

The University authorities would be very glad if student subscribers would take this little reminder to heart. To ensure the success of the great programme that they have in hand they require the co-operation of everybody—including students.

ular relief societies. They are without proper clothing and suffer terribly from lack of nourishment. Yet they are willing to put up with far harder conditions than those under which their fellow-countrymen live in order to gain an education.

Now these men are undoubtedly the future leaders of their respective countries, countries which though weak and helpless today will be strong forces to reckon with tomorrow. If they can feel a debt of gratitude to the students of this country who can say with what interest they will repay present kindnesses? These are waters well worth casting bread upon.

And moreover these men are students. Between students the world over there should be felt a great bond of brotherhood transcending all barriers of nationality. Education broadens men beyond geographical frontiers. The call of those in need in Europe is a call which should have as great response as one from anywhere else.

Robert Hall is in charge of this campaign which begins today and will be carried through on a class basis. Strong lieutenants have been appointed for each faculty and the members of the professoriate are also to be approached. The executive are full of enthusiasm over the prospects of a large return from their classmates and it is up to the students not to disappoint them. Every undergraduate and partial is expected to come in on the business and carry the thing through to a successful conclusion. The cause is a deserving one. Three cents purchases a meal for a student, and to the contributions received the governments of the countries make considerable addition to the ration. It is not expected that even with a generous response that more than two meals per day will be portioned out. This is a small enough maximum and McGill men should do their part to see that it does not fall lower.

DEAN AND MRS. PERRIN ENTERTAINED SUNDAY

Dean and Mrs. Perrin of the faculty of Music were host and hostess at a very delightful tea to out-of-town students yesterday afternoon. The Reading Room of the Hall was well filled with students who spent a very enjoyable and profitable afternoon.

McGill has two hard games this week, first Montreal and then Toronto. See that the Red and White gets started right on Wednesday night.

PEPYS AT MCGILL

Sunday, Jan. 21st. (Lord's Day.) Up very weak but a little space before sunset, and first I durst hardly set foot to the ground so great was the ache in my head, but by and by a little refreshed and able to take for nourishment a sup or two of mulled ale, which I found to be of no small comfort after treading all the day on my truckle-bed, the white ceiling-board before my racked eyes at a maze of lines and consecrated cotangents and other demonish things of that most horrid week of examinations. Even in the great feebleness of mind, which I now have upon me I can summon up a little strength to inveigh against this cruel time of tortures. And chiefmost of all other evils was the bare place into which our fellows were herded for these tests, being more like a longhouse or a great barn than any other thing on earth, and ever and anon some one of the dons, would come tramping up the stairs with a great clatter and unseemly tumult for the still further racking of our tired wits, merely to gaze in upon our misery as if it had been so many poor caged tigers or elephants, out of the Indys, at a fairs, which is naught but a most cruel procedure. Also there is a foul odour about the place which comes I take it from the Physical Education people using it daily for their prancing about which is called exercise. But enough of these evil times, which it dislikes me even to set down here in my journal. One Anthony Pynhede, a sort of preacher fellow, counselled me to take no spirits during the time of these trials which thing I did, only to regret it at this time, and if I should chance to fail I shall wreak a most just vengeance on this same canting miscreant. So to bed full of sorrowfulness in my head and bed full of serenity in my head and heart; and lusty pox on all examinations for that they are most manifestly the work of the devil and none other. My late rising hindered me from Church-going, which is another sad thing.

HARRIER CLUB'S OFFICERS CHOSEN.

It is an inheritance, not confined to a few, but to be enjoyed and developed by anyone. The Club starts its public appearances with this object in view and the rendering of the numbers, which they have chosen may be enjoyed, not only by those who are well educated along musical lines, but also by those men and women who have not as yet seemed to appreciate music. Those who attend the concerts given on Sunday next and in March will learn something about music which they will appreciate, and which will give them a great deal of pleasure. Music provides one of the most elevating forms of recreation that we can obtain, and in times when everyone seems bent upon following some form which is not making for the best of results, we should make every effort to foster that which is good. For this reason, if for no other, the Glee Club merits the support of the entire student body at McGill.

HOCKEY TEAM WILL APPEAR ON WEDNESDAY

Montreal 'Varsity Has Huge
Crowd of Rooters.

BIG GAME.

McGill's First Home Game
This Year.

Frank Shaughnessy and his team of hockey warriors are all ready and waiting for the initial blow of the whistle on Wednesday night that will signal the fact that the battle is on against the University of Montreal. Weeks of practice have made the wearers of the Red and White ready for a gruelling battle in their first appearance of the season before the students and they intend to come through with a victory.

There will be plenty of real opposition on the part of the Montreal 'Varsity squad from the outset of the contests, for they are determined that they will start off their hockey careers well. The students from the east end are not feeling very well pleased about being shut out of the intercollegiate league and they intend to demonstrate that they are as good hockey players as the best of the recognized college team.

Reports have it that their team is really very strong and composed of men who have conditioned themselves by playing on several of the senior teams in the City hockey league. The Lamarr brothers who have been outstanding players in senior hockey in the city for some years and are at present starring on the forward line of the National team, will form a strong part of the attacking force. With them on the forward line will be found Desbriens, according to the advance reports of the line-up for the contest. Desbriens is undoubtedly one of the trickiest players and most dangerous shots playing in amateur hockey about Montreal at the present time. It has been reported on several occasions that he was offered positions with professional teams but preferred to remain with the "simon pures." The defence of the team is not accurately known, with the exception of Courchesne, a figure familiar to the majority of the followers of the fortunes of the local amateur teams. He is fast and heavy and a valuable defence player.

Against the Montreal 'Varsity team the Flanagan-Anderson-Lynch combination will have to bear the brunt of the work. The forward line has been working smoothly throughout the season and they have developed a combination that is hard to stop when they really get going. Flanagan is having one of the best seasons of his career and will keep the goal-tenders watching the right wing anxiously if he continues at the present rate of speed.

"Bo" Anderson, who suffered from an injury to his knee last season, has nothing to hold him back this year and will be a nuisance to the opposing forwards with his poke check and back checking. "Snowflake" Lynch is a newcomer this year to the senior team but he is making good with a vengeance and is expected to be one of the outstanding players of the team this year if he lives up to the hopes that are being reposed in him at the present time. He will play at left wing.

The McGill defence players will in all probability be of Goddard and Dineen. Both of these men played with the team last season and are veterans of line of work at which they will be stationed for the night. Both of them are effective blockers and can both make speedy rushes when they are required. Captain Walter Stenson, in the nets, has yet to turn in a poor game during his hockey career at McGill and he does not intend to mar his record during his final year at college. He has been getting in the way of the shots quite regularly during the practice and will be ready for the hardest drives in the opening contests.

The tickets for the contest were divided so that each of the colleges would have one half of the rink and the supporters of the two teams would not be mingling together. It is said that the half of the rink reserved for the Montreal 'Varsity supporters is already sold out and they are attempting to get some of the seats reserved for McGill.

The authorities at the college here have refused to give up any of their tickets as they are counting on the fact of having all of the seats filled by the supporters of the Red and White. Owing to the cessation of college activities while examinations were taking place at the end of the first term, they were unable to give the tickets for the student body but it is expected that they will all be taken today.

It would appear as if there would be a record crowd for the season at the Mount Royal Arena when the game is started. The Montreal University backers have already shown that they will pack the rink and McGill men have never been missing when the team needed support.

There should be an unprecedented din in the rink throughout the game for both of the colleges will have their rooters out in force. It is quite a long time since the McGill rooters have had any active opposition on their own territory and they will have to double their strength to hold out against the new opponents.

The contest comes at a most opportune time as the majority of the stu-

Carson Injured and Unable to Play Entire Game.

Varsity and Queen's University played the opening game of the senior intercollegiate series here before a fine afternoon crowd of four thousand and a band. The Toronto cheer leader and his chorus was much in evidence.

The game was late in starting. The delay was caused by the necessity of coaxing certain Varsity players to get into uniform. All but Hudson were persuaded. This development arose from some disciplining of certain of the players for conduct that culminated at Kitchener this week. Evans was replaced as substitute by Plaxton, with Westman catching a regular place and Gordon making the second sub. The team were:

Varsity	Position	Queen's
Langtry	Goal	Macneil
Brown	Defence	Richie
Ramsay	Centre	Smith
Carson	R. W.	Nelson
Westman	L. W.	Brown
Wright	Subs.	Carroll
Plaxton	Swartman
Gordon	Stewart
Sullivan	Extra goal-keeper	Brown
Referee	Robert Hewitson.

Varsity had all the better of the play in the first five minutes with a dozen shots to one but Kinston was checking back closely and bunting in front of goal, forcing Varsity to individual play.

The first goal went to Queens on a long shot by Smith. A few seconds later Carson, the Varsity star centre and goal getter, was crashed into the fence by Brown of Queens and had to be carried off the ice.

Westman equalized for Varsity in six minutes on a long rush, which style both teams are playing, whether from force or choice. Ramsay put Varsity in front in four more minutes, making one of his numerous lone rushes. Varsity had much the better of the play and showed what little team play there was. Queens made no attempt at combination at all. Plaxton, Varsity's sub, filled in splendidly after Carson was knocked out. Score end first period—Varsity, 2; Queens, 1.

Summary:
1—Queens....Smith.....4 mins.
2—Varsity....Westman.....6 mins.
3—Varsity....Ramsay.....4 mins.

Second Period.
It took only forty seconds for Varsity to count the opening goal of the second period, Brown slamming from Westman's shot, Carson sat on the bench and is not badly injured. Varsity counted the fifth goal after repeated onslaughts on Queens' net with Brown and Plaxton showing fast work. The latter counted on a pass from Brown who pulled the defence out. Queens is still battering down as individuals. Brown soared around and through the Queens' opposition in one of his meteoric flights and tobed it in four minutes. A succession of attacks and shots ended in Brown slapping one in for Varsity on a rebound from Wright. In this period Queens is utterly outclassed backward and forward. They lack anything approaching an offensive, and defensively are helpless to stop Varsity. McNeill in goal had an extremely busy session with little assistance from in front and did splendidly. Score end second period—Varsity, 6; Queens, 1.

Summary:
4—Varsity....Brown.....40 secs.
5—Varsity....Plaxton.....5 mins.
7—Varsity....Brown.....4 mins.
7—Varsity....Brown.....6 mins.

At the end of the final period the score was: Varsity, 12; Queen's, 6.

ECONOMIC'S CLUB TO MEET THURSDAY

The meeting of the Economics Club which is to be held on Thursday in the smoking room of the Arts Building will be the scene for the reading of a paper on the subject of "Oriental Immigration as it affects Canada." O'Hagen will read the paper and is already well known as a speaker throughout the University. The subject is one not clear to most of the people in the eastern part of Canada but vital to those who live on the West Coast.

If "she" is going with you to the game you had better hustle to get one of the reserved seats for Wednesday. The rooters will perform their usual game of having the best man get the best seat.

dents are concerned for the examinations are concluded and the students can well feel that it is time to take a night off from the usual grind of studies. With such a contest in view almost every student is expected to be present to cheer the team on.

Kelly, making his initial appearance with the intermediates, got off to a good start. He registered the first goal for McGill on a neatly executed play. Moran, in the nets, played his usual consistent game, being called upon to make a number of brilliant stops in the second session.

For the losers, "Billy" Mill, who played at centre for the M.A.A.A. football team last fall, was the outstanding performer, accounting, single-handed, for both his team's points. Despite the fact that his skates were not of the conventional tube fashion, he was the fastest man of the Lachine outfit. When he broke loose towards the latter part of the final period he was one of the most dangerous men the team has yet faced. Both his goals were well earned, and elicited rounds of applause from the small crowd of spectators.

Saturday's victory places McGill well in the lead with four victories and no defeats for a total of 8 points.

In the four games played thus far the Red and White has amassed a total of 26 points to 5 for their opponents. The season opened with a 3-2 victory over Westmount, the McGill team being composed for the most part of Juniors. Huntingdon was the next victim in a 7-1 whitewash, and in the third game M.A.A.A. proved no match for the college team, being blanked 10-0. Unless the team takes a decided slump, there does not seem to be any club in the League which can wrest the lead from the McGill six.

First Period.

The play in this period was rather slow. Neither team showed any amount of team work, and the puck was kept at mid ice for a great part of the first five minutes of play. The combination of the McGill team then began to improve, Kelly and Kent combined in a rush down the ice. Kelly received a pretty pass from Kent, and passed back when he was checked; it was a beautifully executed play, and looked like a sure goal, but Marsden came out of the nets and made a brilliant save. L. Clement then carried the puck down to the McGill defence, where Dempsey neatly took it away from him, made a speedy trip down the rink, followed by a perfect pass to Kelly, who sagged the corner of the net for the first point. McGill, 1; Lachine, 0. The checking was very close during the remainder of the period, and neither goaler had much work to do. Kent and McNaughton did some pretty checking near their own goal during the final minutes of the period, when the Lachine team rallied. Len. Kent made a pretty save, when, after slipping on the ice, he extended his stick in the air and stopped what seemed a dangerous shot by B. Mills. Score: McGill, 1; Lachine, 0.

Second Period.

The second McGill goal came 30 seconds after the opening of this period. Kelly and Kent skated down the ice together. Kelly was about to take a close shot at the net when Marsden ran out to block it. Kelly neatly passed to Kent, who scored a pretty goal. McGill, 2; Lachine, 0. The Lachine goaler was then kept quite busy with shots by Dempsey and McGerrigle. The latter made a speedy excursion down the ice, and when the defence forced him to the boards he passed out to Kent, who put the third one past Marsden. McGill, 3; Lachine, 0.

The McGill combination was improving steadily. Stephens, who was sent on for Kelly, secured the puck, and skated down the rink, and being forced behind the net, he made an accurate pass from the corner out to McNaughton, who was waiting in front of the goal, for the 4th counter. McGill, 4; Lachine, 0. The McGill forwards were showing great form in intercepting their opponents' passes, and in this manner broke up most of Lachine's plays. The losers took a brace, however, and began to hammer at the Red and White net, but Moran weathered the storm. The period ended with the McGill picking up in speed, and the Lachine goaler was on his stomach making all sorts of stops. McGill, 4; Lachine, 0.

Third Period.

After one minute of play Frederick secured the puck in a scrimmage in front of the Lachine goal, and poked it in. McGill, 5; Lachine, 0. B. Mills began to pick up in form, and gave the McGill rooters more than one score. Frederick was sent off for two minutes and the Lachine team rallied. Playing one man shy the Red and White team put up a stubborn resistance, the defence men

BASKETBALL TEAM TO TRAVEL WEST

First Game at Hart House
Against Toronto.

The Senior Basketball team has a small but enthusiastic following at all their games in the city league and now that the intercollegiate league has started action the whole college will soon watch their efforts to capture the pennant. Although they stand but second in the city league the reason for this is not bad playing and in the past few weeks any possible flaw has been completely removed from the team work and shooting of the team. The passing and shooting has reached a point that is the ambition of most teams and is deadly. The coach has drilled them into combination that will indeed puzzle the most veteran players.

Next week the team will meet Toronto at Hart House and will be put to a real test of their ability. In all probabilities the forward line will be made up from: Little, Hays, Manson, Laishley, and Burke, while Crain, Mendelsohn, and Livshin will compose the defence. Of these men Little, Hays, Laishley and Crain were letter men last year.

The team should put up a fine game as every man is enthusiastic over the possibilities of adding another championship to McGill. They will leave for Toronto Friday accompanied by coach Fox and Manager Moody.

displaying unusual grit. McLean and Dempsey did some fine checking. B. Mills then skated right down through the defence and registered a well-deserved goal. McGill, 5; Lachine, 1.

The play then became very spirited. Frederick skated down and around the defence, but was too far out to shoot; he passed to Kent, who made it McGill, 6; Lachine, 1. A moment later "Billy" Mills, who was the mainstay of his team, secured again, and shooting from outside defence, got one by Moran for the last point of the game. McGill, 6; Lachine, 2.

FINAL GAME IN COMMERCE NOT PLAYED

Saturdays' Hockey Contest Postponed Until To-day

CLOSE FIGHT.
Classes in Various Faculties Play Hard to Get Championship.

The elimination games in the various faculties have been practically all played to date. Only one faculty remains in which the championship game is yet to be played. Commerce '23 and '24 were scheduled to play Saturday at 12.15. The freshman team appeared on the ice, but only one representative from the Sophomore team was present. This game was offered to the freshmen by default, but the latter asked for a postponement, as they would much rather play the game than win by default. This certainly displays good sportsmanship on the part of the freshmen, but it is indeed regrettable that the failure of the Sophomore team necessitated the postponement of the game. The game is scheduled now for to-day, at 3.15 p.m.

The following games have been played since the last issue of the "Daily":—

Thursday—Arts '22 defeated Arts '23, 2-1. Arts '24 drew Arts '25, 1-1.

Friday—Com. '23 defeated Com. '22, 4-0. Dent. '24 defeated Dent. '22 & '23, 9-2.

Saturday—Med. '22 defeated Med. '25, 7-3. Med. '26 defeated Med. '24, 4-1.

Monday—Arts '24 defeated Arts '25, 9-0. Med. '22 defeated Med. '23, 5-1.

Tuesday—Science '25 defeated Sci. '22, 6-4. Dent. '24 defeated Dent. '25, 9-0.

Wednesday—Arts '22 defeated Arts '24, 2-1. Med. '22 drew Med. '26, 3-3.

The game between Med. '22 and '26 was replayed on Saturday, and the full report appears in another part of the Daily.

The champions of the various faculties are: Arts '22, Science '25 and Dentistry '24, with Meds. and Commerce to be played at time of writing. Law did not play their games, and the manager regrets that it was necessary to drop them from the League.

As may be seen the contests have been very close in most faculties, and the various champions have won through hard practice and consistently clean playing. The new penalty rules have worked marvels, and not one major penalty has been imposed this year.

The schedule for the following week is as follows:

Monday, Jan. 23.
3.15 to 4.15—Com. '23 and Com. '24.
5.15 to 6.15—Junior practice.
6.15 to 7.15—Med.—Sci. '25.

Tuesday, Jan. 24.

5.15 to 6.15—Com.—Arts '22.
6.15 to 7.15—Dent. '24—Med.

Wednesday, Jan. 25.

5.15 to 6.15—Sci. '25—Com.
6.15 to 7.15—Dent. '24—Arts '22.

Thursday, Jan. 26.

5.15 to 6.15—Med.—Com.
6.15 to 7.15—Dent. '24—Sci. '25.

Friday, Jan. 27.

5.15 to 6.15—Med.—Arts '22.
6.15 to 7.15—Dent. '24—Com.

Saturday, Jan. 28.

12.15 to 1.15—Sci. '25—Arts. '22.

It is of course understood that this schedule is between the champion classes in each faculty. It is a very strenuous week for the various champions, necessitating a game almost every night, but if possible it is desired to run a double All-Star schedule this year, and for that reason the class champions must be determined as soon as possible.

There will be a meeting of the faculty All-Star managers on Friday night at 5.15 p.m., in the Music Room at the Union. At this meeting the schedule for the faculty games will be drawn up.

The present practice schedule in force will be cancelled on Saturday, Jan. 28th, and an ew schedule will be drawn up. All classes wishing to retain practice hours after that date must have their representatives at the Union on Friday night, for the meeting.

C. F. ELDERKIN,
Manager, Class Hockey.

MISS MARIE LOHR SPEAKS TO PLAYERS

Well Known Actress Gives Short Address at McGill.

Miss Marie Lohr, the well-known actress, who has just left for her first theatrical visit to New York after filling a two weeks engagement at His Majesty's Theatre, was the guest of the Players' Club at a very enjoyable informal meeting held on the afternoon of Monday, January 23rd.

In a short address which she gave to the club members Miss Lohr gave a very frank exposition of her views on the state of the Drama in this country, and made no effort to gloss over the true state of affairs. Throughout her Canadian tour Miss Lohr consistently refused to address any but University dramatic organizations, in the belief that it is only through the medium of the universities that the Canadian people can be awakened to a proper realization of their responsibilities to dramatic art.

HARRIER CLUB'S OFFICERS CHOSEN

Plans for Next Season to be on Large Scale.

Since the last issue of the "Daily" there was held the annual meeting of the McGill Harrier Club which took place in the Union on the evening of January 11th. Besides the election of officers many interesting matters were brought up.

The first act was a resolution of sympathy to Norrie Owens who is still critically ill as a result of his recent skiing accident.

The annual report of the secretary showed that the club has spent a busy season. In addition to the intercollegiate meet held at Kingston, several other local competitions were entered by members. Although the numbers turning out this year at McGill were small yet there has been considerable interest shown in American universities and other Montreal harrier organizations.

Next fall the annual intercollegiate race will be held in Montreal when this university will compete with Varsity, Queen's and Royal Military College.

In the coming season it is expected that McGill runners will have increased opportunities to match with outside marathoners.

Dr. Cyrus Macmillan was unanimously elected honorary president. The other officers elected were:—

President: N. Egerton.
Vice-President: R. Legg.
Sec.-Treas: J. C. Antliff.
Antliff is also thus elected intercollegiate secretary of the C. I. H. Union.

A SNOWSHOE TEAM TO VISIT STATES

Molson Hall and Campus to be Training Grounds.

McGill Snowshoers will have an opportunity to visit Quebec and Dartmouth this winter, if the judgment of the executive is any guiding mark. It is hoped that at least four men will be able to compete in the Quebec Championships and also at the annual eastern American universities' winter carnival that two red and white representatives be present.

Practices will be held twice a week on the campus under the direction of Mr. Gentlemen who has no small numbers of trophies to show for his racing career. Last season McGill won no small fame in intercollegiate and provincial circles for the medals won by her racers and it is expected that such men as H. R. L. Hamilton, Creelman and J. C. Simpson will be on hand again to carry off the honours this year.

Last year the McGill Snowshoe Club was organized; while it will in all probability be officially recognized by the Athletic Association at the next meeting. If so McGill snowshoers will be eligible.

Arrangements are now being made to give every member of the club a special badge similar in many respects to that worn by McGill Ski Club members. These will be issued to all who turn out at the bi-weekly practices on the campus on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 5 p.m.

The social tramp to be held Tuesday is only one phase of the annual programme of events, and gives an opportunity for men, who try out on snowshoes for the first time, to learn how simple and fascinating this useful Canadian sport really is.

To praise the new dance I discretely make bold,
I can't learn the steps, but fancy the hold;

But maybe the teachers will finally get by,
And give us a dance without any step.

Tho most people know
That boys will be boys
The thing that will make
You feel like the dickens,
Is to find at the table
That eggs will be shickens.

Now that examinations are over for the time being, save that whoop of joy until Wednesday night, and pour it all out in rooting for the hockey team.

Genuine Ford Parts For Sale Here

The Sign of Motoring Satisfaction

There is a book about the Ford Service Man

The local Ford dealer has one for you. Call in or write for it. You will find it interesting reading.

"The Ford Service Man" personifies Ford Service. He is the skilled mechanic you find in every Ford Garage. His years of experience on Ford repairs save you money and assure the satisfactory performance of your car.

"The Ford Service Man" has one pet aversion—spurious parts. He simply cannot understand why any Ford owner should be so indifferent to the welfare of his Car as to permit a spurious part to be used.

Genuine Ford Parts— as exact as the original— are made for your car by the makers of your car, and are subjected to tests before leaving the factory far more severe than any they will meet under actual running conditions.

Have all repairs made where you see the familiar Ford sign. Genuine Ford Parts and Genuine Ford Parts alone are used wherever you see it displayed. It is the safety sign—the Economy sign—the sign of Motoring Satisfaction.
